Dear Chris,

I want to take this opportunity to thank you for your letter.

Unfortunately, your situation appears to involve litigation or may require litigation under the judicial system. Members of Congress are precluded from inquiring into matters pending before the courts by provisions of the Constitution that mandate a separation of powers between the Judicial, Executive, and Legislative branches. I feel that my involvement in your present situation may be viewed as an interference in the judicial process.

Chris, I am sorry that I cannot be of assistance at this time.

Sincerely,

John McCain
United States Senator
